PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Intimus 402CC cross cut shredder is designed to meet the needs of any office. It will shred up to 16 sheets of paper including paper clips and staples and paper clips allowing it to keep up to even the most hectic office environment. Plus the unique console design allows it to be placed under a desk, or table to conserve space and increase productivity. This means that with the 402CC console shredder you don't need to have a huge machine in the middle of your office. It neatly tucks away and literally grinds away. The Intimus 402 cross cut shredder offers automatic operation that starts the shredder the moment that confidential documents enter the machine and stops the shredder when the job is done. This makes operating the 402CC easy for even the most inexperienced users. The extremely quiet operation and sleek design of the Intimus 402 makes it ideal for a busy office where space is at a premium and noise is a concern.
